

Rich in History

The Seaboard Air Line Railroad began rolling through Matthews in 1874. As Matthews grew, the railroad remained an important part of the town. A number of trains still roll through town several times a day. Get a closeup view of the trains from the historic Train Depot and Visitor's Center. Learn more about the rich history of our town with a visit to the Matthews Heritage Museum and the Historic Reid House.

An Exceptional Place

Nestled between Charlotte and Union County, Matthews combines big city amenities with a small-town feel. Consistently ranked as one of the safest places to live, our town is also recognized as one of the best places to raise a family. Annual festivals, family-friendly entertainment and plenty of recreational opportunities have made it one of the most desirable locations in the region. The downtown area is a vibrant destination with exciting nightlife, outstanding restaurants and one-of-a-kind shopping.
